

There should be proper and well-publicized hearings and informational pieces regarding the changes being proposed in FCC regulations. The war in Iraq has ostensibly been fought to protect our liberties , as well as to extend them to Iraqi citizens. Competitive media is an essential ingredient for our freedom of speech, and for participatory democracy to function.

t